(Questions 21 - 28)

ここでは、2つの英語の長文とそれらに関する4つの質問があります。
注意深く読み、質問の答えとして最も適切なものを、[A]～[D]の中から1つ
選びなさい。

Ballet is a style of dance which was created in France in the 1500s. Ballet first came to Russia in the 1700s.

The first ballet dancers in Russia studied both French and Italian styles of ballet. The Russian ballet style began in the 1800s, when Russian ballet dancers began using traditional Russian dance steps, moving their whole bodies. This helped make their dances more interesting. As a result, Russian ballet dancers tell stories better. People all over Europe loved the Russian style of ballet, and wanted to learn it. Because of this, one of the most famous Russian ballet dancers moved to England in order to teach Russian ballet to people there.

In the early 1900s, music began to be written for Russian ballets. Before this, dancers had used music that had not been written especially for ballets. By using this special music, people were able to understand the stories even more clearly.

Over the years, Russian ballet has become more and more famous, and today it is enjoyed by people all over the world.

21 What is this passage mainly about?

- [A] The history of Russian ballet.
- [B] The music of Russian ballet.
- [C] The stories of Russian ballet.
- [D] The styles of Russian ballet.

22 The first ballet dancers in Russia learned styles of ballet from _____.

- [A] England and France
- [B] France and Italy
- [C] Italy and Russia
- [D] Russia and England

23 How did Russian ballet dancers make their dances more interesting?

- [A] They used steps from traditional Russian dances.
- [B] They used steps they learned from French ballet.
- [C] They used stories about dancers living in Europe.
- [D] They used stories by famous teachers in England.

24 Russian ballet started to use special music to _____.

- [A] help dancers understand ballet music
- [B] help people understand the stories
- [C] make ballet dancers more famous
- [D] make ballets especially for Russian dancers

Matt lived in a city. He loved basketball and played on a team. One week, Matt's parents both had to take business trips, so he had to stay with his grandmother outside of the city. He was sad about missing basketball practice. He didn't know his grandmother well, but he was happy to visit her.

When Matt arrived at his grandmother's house, he took his bag to his room. When he was putting his bag in the closet, he saw an old album. He opened it and saw pictures of a girl playing basketball. It was his grandmother! Matt thought it was interesting that his grandmother liked basketball!

He showed the album to his grandmother.

"My old basketball album!" she said. "I didn't know I still had that!"

She told him about when she played basketball, and Matt talked about his team. Then he asked, "Do you want to play basketball together?"

"I would like that," she answered.

The next day, they played basketball at a gym near her house and Matt took photos of his grandmother.

When Matt returned home, he sent his grandmother the photos. When she received them, she put them in her album and smiled.

25 Why did Matt stay at his grandmother's house for a week?

- [A] His parents wanted him to play basketball outside the city.
- [B] His parents wanted him to spend time with his grandmother.
- [C] His parents were doing business near her house.
- [D] His parents were busy with their jobs that week.

26 Why was Matt unhappy at the beginning of the story?

- [A] He couldn't go to basketball practice.
- [B] He couldn't take a trip with his team.
- [C] He missed being with his grandmother.
- [D] He missed both of his parents.

27 Why did Matt and his grandmother begin to talk about basketball?

- [A] He found pictures of his grandmother playing basketball.
- [B] He wanted to tell his grandmother about his basketball team.
- [C] His grandmother gave him an old album of basketball photos.
- [D] His grandmother knew that he loved his basketball team.

28 What did Matt do after he went back to his home in the city?

- [A] He gave his grandmother some photos of his basketball team.
- [B] He looked at some photos of his grandmother and smiled.
- [C] He made himself an album with photos from his stay.
- [D] He sent his grandmother some photos from their time together.
